1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 This is one of twenty four Telephone Consumer Protection Act cases of which
 3 LeadPoint, Inc. and Reliance First Capital, LLC are aware filed by Nathen Barton, President
 4 of a “consulting agency” called “TCPA University.”¹ In this case, Mr. Barton claimed that on 5 March 2, 2021, he received a text message addressed to “Wendy,” that said “TxtSTOPtoEnd,”
 6 and contained a link that directed to homeequityquiz.com (which referenced LeadPoint).
 7 Instead of responding “STOP,” Mr. Barton submitted his telephone number and agreed to a 8 disclosure explaining he would receive calls and texts. After receiving calls and texts, he sued
 9 five parties in a case he created using a telephone he obtained for “judicial branch advocacy.”²

10 Hours after LeadPoint removed the case to this Court, Mr. Barton emailed a copy of a 11 meritless Motion to Remand. Two weeks later, he withdrew the Motion after unsuccessfully 12 attempting to leverage it. Following a second round of Motions to Dismiss, Magistrate Judge
 13 Theresa L. Fricke issued a Report and Recommendation recommending that Mr. Barton’s
 14 claims be dismissed with prejudice, primarily because he consented. The Court thereafter
 15 issued its Order granting LeadPoint and Reliance’s Motion to Dismiss and to Strike.

16 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54, RCW 4.84.185, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and LCR 11(c)
 17 LeadPoint and Reliance respectfully request an award of attorneys’ fees LeadPoint expended
 18 in defending this case.³ This case was frivolous in its entirety, warranting recovery of its fees 19 and non-taxable costs, $159,963.80. At the very least, Defendants respectfully submit that an 20 award of $80,102.00 is warranted pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1927 and LCR 11(c).

22 ¹ According to www.tcpauniversity.com, which was operational on January 21, 2022 (but was taken offline on or 23 about January 26), Mr. Barton “ha[s] been taking telemarketing companies . . . to court one phone number at a 24 time, resulting in enormous compensation . . . I’m talking several tens of thousands of U.S. dollars . . . and it
 25 keeps coming.” Decl. of Esteban Morales in Support of Motion for Attorneys’ Fees and Non-Taxable Costs
 26 (“Morales Decl.”), ¶¶ 9-11, Ex. 8. Before the website became “Unavailable,” TCPA University advised visitors that it “now offer[ed] . . . comprehensive consultancy services.” Id., ¶ 11, Ex. 8 at Pg. 8, and ¶ 14, Ex. 11. See also Id. at ¶¶ 12-13, Ex. 9 (Facebook page for TCPA University describing it as a “Consulting agency”) and Ex.
 10 (Google search results describing Mr. Barton as the “founder of TCPA University”). The website’s unavailability raises spoliation concerns if Mr. Barton intends to continue trying to pursue this case (and another involving a fraud counterclaim).

27 ² Without a second call, Mr. Barton would not have had sufficient calls to attempt to bring a claim under 47
 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5) – the only claim he pursued after abandoning every other claim.

28 ³ LeadPoint paid for its defense as well as the defense of Reliance First Capital.

1 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND FACTS

2 A. Plaintiff's Initial Complaint

3 Mr. Barton initiated this case in Clark County Superior Court on April 21, 2021,
 4 naming LeadPoint, Reliance, and three other defendants.⁴ Complaint at Dkt. No. 1-1
 5 (“Compl.”) He alleged having received a text message on March 2, 2021 that said:

6 Hi Wendy,
 7 New mortgage program in Lawrenceville!
 8 See your savings now.
 http://370.bz/3/0AQJ-1HGPGR
 9 TxtSTOPtoEnd

10 Instead of responding “STOP,” he “clicked the link and was taken to webpage 11 `homeequityquiz.com`,” where he “answer[ed]” a “series of questions.” Id. at 1:25 and 30-33.
 12 Mr. Barton claimed he could not identify LeadPoint on `homeequityquiz.com` when he 13 received the first alleged text and on that basis asked for more texts and calls; after increasing 14 his claimed statutory damages, he “[e]ventually . . . noticed” language on the “website that 15 admits ‘HomeEquityQuiz is owned by LeadPoint Inc.’” Compl., Dkt. No. 1-1 at 4:7-8.⁵ He 16 alleged that “[b]y March 7, [he] was quite fed up with the situation” Id. at 4:9.

17 ⁴ As of this filing, Mr. Barton is, or has been, a plaintiff in eleven other TCPA cases in this Court. See Barton v. Serve All Help All Inc., et al., No. 3:21-cv-05338-BHS (W.D. Wash.); Barton v. DirecTV LLC, No. 3:21-cv-05423-BHS (W.D. Wash.); Barton v. Asset Realty LLC, et al., No. 3:21-cv-05462-RJB (W.D. Wash.); Barton v. Sopi Financial LLC, et al., No. 3:21-cv-05934-RJB (W.D. Wash.). Mr. Barton has been countersued for fraud, and his motion to dismiss the counterclaim, denied by the Court in Barton v. Delfgauw, et al. 3:21-cv-05610-JRC at Dkt. Nos. 39 and 45. LeadPoint is aware of twelve other TCPA cases Mr. Barton filed in state court and which, based upon review of dockets, appear to be separate matters from those removed. Barton v. Laurent, et al., No. 20S000529 (Clark County Wash.); Barton v. EverQuote, Inc., et al., No. 21C1436-4 (Clark County Wash.); *Barton v. 26 ⁵ When he clicked the link, he was presented with language that referenced LeadPoint and told him he was agreeing to texts and calls. Declaration of Esteban Morales, Dkt. No. 14, Ex. A.

1 B. Removal and Mr. Barton's Motion to Remand

2 On May 19, 2021, LeadPoint removed the case to this Court on the basis of federal 3 question and supplemental jurisdiction. Notice of Removal, Dkt. No. 1. That afternoon,
 4 LeadPoint's local counsel emailed Mr. Barton a copy of the Notice of Removal. Morales
 5 Decl., Ex. 1. Mr. Barton responded a few hours later by emailing his Motion to Remand. Id.
 6 Motion to Remand, Dkt. No. 15.⁶ Though the Notice of Removal was not premised on 7 diversity jurisdiction, Mr. Barton opened his motion by arguing the case could not be 8 removed on that basis. Id., Dkt. No. 15 at 2:2-6. He also claimed that Article III standing did 9 not exist:

10 Plaintiff's original complaint . . . did not allege i) the phone was in Plaintiff's 11 possession; ii) when a call is actually received by the Plaintiff; and iii) in a 12 manner that caused a nuisance. Therefore, Plaintiff lacks standing under Article 13 III to proceed in this Court.

14 Id. at 2:8-11. Counsel for loanDepot.com asked Mr. Barton to clarify his position: "Are you 15 saying someone else received each of the calls and that the phone was not in your possession?
 16 Thanks." Mr. Barton responded: "I think you have to work with what is in the complaint :)."
 17 Morales Decl., Ex. 2. The next day, Mr. Barton tried to leverage withdrawing his Motion to 18 Remand in exchange for the defendants agreeing to more interrogatories. Id. at Ex. 3.

19 On June 1, counsel for LeadPoint emailed Mr. Barton, asking that he withdraw the 20 Motion to Remand because it was unwarranted. Morales Decl., Ex. 4. On June 3, Mr. Barton
 21 tried to leverage withdrawing the meritless Motion to Remand in exchange for no opposition 22 to adding a defendant. Id. at Ex. 5. LeadPoint and Reliance declined, explaining again that 23 the "Motion to Remand should be withdrawn because it lacks factual and legal merit." Id.
 24 Later that day, Mr. Barton agreed to withdraw the motion. Id. Less than two weeks before he 25 emailed his Motion to Remand, Mr. Barton initiated a separate TCPA case in this Court, 26 alleging that federal court in fact was a proper forum to hear that case.⁷

⁶ The Court received Mr. Barton's Motion to Remand on May 24, 2021.

⁷ Id. at Ex. 6, Barton v. Serve All Help All Inc., et al. Complaint at 2:16-19.

1 C. LeadPoint and Reliance's Motions to Dismiss and the FAC

2 While Mr. Barton's Motion to Remand was pending, LeadPoint and Reliance filed a
 3 Motion to Dismiss and Strike on May 26, 2021, explaining the case should be dismissed
 4 because Mr. Barton consented, created an Established Business Relationship, and his 5 telephone did not qualify as residential. Motion to Dismiss and to Strike, Dkt. No. 13, and 6 Declaration of Esteban Morales in Support of Motion to Dismiss and to Strike, Dkt. No. 14.
 7 Mr. Barton opposed the Motion on June 1, 2021. Response to Motion to Dismiss and Strike,
 8 Dkt. No. 24.⁸

9 On June 7, Mr. Barton filed a First Amended Complaint, alleging that "he obtained 10 this phone and phone number to use . . . for non-commercial judicial branch advocacy."
 11 Motion for Leave to Amend Complaint and First Amended Complaint ("FAC"), Dkt. Nos. 31
 12 and 31-1 at 3:23-4:1. He added that "calls were received by Plaintiff while at his Clark
 13 County WA residence," and claimed that "[b]y March 7, Plaintiff was highly agitated by all 14 the phone calls." Id. at 4:15-5:16 and 8:15-16.⁹ He alleged the following claims: TCPA, 47
 15 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5); Telemarketing Sales Rule, 16 C.F.R. §§ 310.4(b)(iii)(A)-(B), (c), and § 16 "310.3(4)(b)"¹⁰; and RCW 19.86.020, 19.158.040, 19.158.110(2), 19.158.150, and 17 80.36.390(3).

18 LeadPoint and Reliance responded with a Motion to Dismiss and to Strike on June 17.
 19 Among other arguments, they continued to argue that the case should be dismissed because 20 Mr. Barton consented, created an Established Business Relationship, and because his 21
 22
 23

24 ⁸ Mr. Barton opened his Opposition by arguing that his Motion to Remand should be granted despite including a 25 proposed amended complaint establishing Article III standing. Compare Id. at 2:9-20 with Proposed Amended 26 Complaint, Dkt. No. 24-1 at 3:8-12.

On June 4, 2021, Mr. Barton moved to dismiss Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company because he incorrectly named the company as a defendant. Motion to Dismiss, Dkt. No. 26.

⁹ LeadPoint highlights the allegations because Mr. Barton argued, in his Motion to Remand, that Article III standing did not exist due to a lack of allegations to this effect (which he was again making).

¹⁰ Mr. Barton appeared to be referencing 16 C.F.R. § 310.3(a)(4).

1 telephone was not residential.¹¹ Motion to Dismiss and to Strike, Dkt. 33. The Motion to 2 Dismiss and to Strike was fully briefed on July 30, 2021.¹²

3 D. The Court's Report and Recommendation and Order Dismissing the Case

4 On November 3, Magistrate Judge Fricke issued a Report and Recommendation,
 5 recommending that the Court grant LeadPoint and Reliance's Motion and dismiss the claims
 6 with prejudice. Report and Recommendation, Dkt. No. 47. The Report and Recommendation 7 concluded that “[t]he allegations . . . establish that Plaintiff gave his prior express consent to 8 be contacted by Defendants.” Id. at 8:19-20. Primarily for this reason, the Report and 9 Recommendation recommended that the TCPA and state law claims be dismissed with 10 prejudice.

11 Mr. Barton filed an Objection to the Report and Recommendation on November 4, in 12 which he abandoned all claims against loanDepot.com and Global Equity Finance as well as 13 his state law claims against LeadPoint and Reliance. Objection, Dkt. No. 50 at 5:1-8.
 14 LeadPoint and Reliance responded on November 18, 2021. Response to Objection, Dkt. No.
 15 51.

16 On January 13, 2022, the Court issued its Order adopting the Report and 17 Recommendation as to dismissal of Mr. Barton's claims with prejudice. Order, Dkt. No. 52.
 18 The Order noted that LeadPoint “argues persuasively that the subject phone number is not a 19 ‘residential phone number’ as a matter of law.” Id. at 3 n.2. The Court added that both 20 defendants “assert, persuasively,” that Barton submitted information “to ‘manufacture’ a 21 claim for statutory TCPA damages.” Id. at 5.

22
 24
 25 ¹¹ In addition to Mr. Barton's allegations regarding using the phone at issue for “judicial branch advocacy,” 26 LeadPoint and Reliance explained that Mr. Barton filed another case involving a different telephone number that he described as his “personal cell phone.” Motion to Dismiss and to Strike, Dkt. No. 33 at 6 n.6. They also noted that Mr. Barton abandoned his Telemarketing Sales Rule claims after conceding he did not have a private right of action. Id. at 14, and Declaration of Esteban Morales, Dkt. 33-1 at Ex. H.

¹² loanDepot.com filed a Motion to Dismiss while Global Equity Finance filed its own Motion to Dismiss and joined in the arguments of LeadPoint and Reliance. See Dkt. Nos. 34 and 35.

1 III. FEES ARE APPROPRIATE UNDER RCW 4.84.185

2 A. Standard Under RCW 4.84.185

3 “[T]he Court may award attorney’s fees upon a finding that the lawsuit was ‘frivolous
4 and advanced without reasonable cause’ RCW 4.84.185. ‘A lawsuit is frivolous when it
5 cannot be supported by any rational argument on the law or facts.’ . . . ‘[A] defendant drawn
6 into an action without reasonable cause and subjected to the claims against it that, considered
7 as a whole, are frivolous, may be awarded expenses under RCW 4.84.185, regardless of the 8 merit of the plaintiff’s claims against other defendants.’”¹³ Pro se parties can be ordered to 9 pay fees.¹⁴

10 B. An Award of Fees and Costs is Appropriate

11 LeadPoint and Reliance respectfully submit that an award of attorneys’ fees is 12 appropriate. After abandoning every other claim, Mr. Barton pursued a TCPA claim under 47 13 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5), which requires more than one call. Had Mr. Barton responded to the 14 initial alleged text with “STOP,” he would not have had the second call necessary to try to 15 allege a claim. Nor would he have had a pretext to sue Reliance (or any other defendant).
16 When Mr. Barton submitted his information and asked for calls, he was well versed in the 17 TCPA – LeadPoint and Reliance located seven state court complaints signed or filed by Mr.
18 Barton before March 2, 2021 alleging TCPA claims. Morales Decl., Ex. 7. Mr. Barton is 19 now the “President” and “founder” of “TCPA University.” Id. at ¶¶ 9-14, Exs. 8 and 10.

20 In his Complaints, Mr. Barton claimed he did this because he “could not ascertain the 21 entity behind the solicitation.” FAC, Dkt. No. 31-1 at 4:16-17. Brazenly, he added that after 22 requesting calls and texts, he “eventually figured out this message was sent from or on behalf 23 of LeadPoint” because he “[e]ventually . . . noticed” text that said LeadPoint on

1 homeequityquiz.com. Id. at 7:19-21 and 8:6-7. There was no need for Mr. Barton to ask for 2 calls and texts to identify LeadPoint; each page on homeequityquiz.com said “LeadPoint.”
 3 Decl. of Esteban Morales in Support of Motion to Dismiss and to Strike, Ex. B, Dkt. No. 33-4 3.

5 Having manufactured this lawsuit, Mr. Barton’s claims primarily failed because he 6 consented. Report and Recommendation, Dkt. No. 47 at 8-12. Report and Recommendation, 7 Dkt. No. 47 at 8-12. The Court added that LeadPoint “argue[d] persuasively that the subject
 8 phone number is not a ‘residential phone number’ as a matter of law” (Order, Dkt. 52 at 3
 9 n.2); though the Report and Recommendation did not reach the issue, Mr. Barton’s admitted
 10 use of the telephone for “judicial branch advocacy,” and representations in other litigation
 11 regarding a different personal cell phone, also warranted dismissal of his TCPA claim.

12 The Report and Recommendation also concluded that Mr. Barton’s RCW 19.86.020
 13 claim (only alleged against LeadPoint) should be dismissed because he admitted seeing 14 LeadPoint on homeequityquiz.com. Report and Recommendation, Dkt. No. 47 at 10. As to 15 the RCW 80.36.390(3) claim, the Report and Recommendation concluded that Mr. Barton did 16 not state a claim because he did not allege a conversation took place nor that he made a do-
 17 not-call request during telephone contact, as required by the statute. Id. at 10-11. Mr. Barton
 18 conceded the issues by abandoning his state law claims. Dkt. 50 at 5:2-9.¹⁵

19 IV. FEES ARE APPROPRIATE UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 1927 AND LCR 11

20 A. Standards Under 28 U.S.C. § 1927 and LCR 11(c)

21 Under 28 U.S.C. § 1927, “[a]ny attorney or other person . . . who so multiplies the 22 proceedings . . . unreasonably and vexatiously may be required by the court to satisfy 23 personally the excess costs, expenses, and attorneys’ fees reasonably incurred because of such 24 conduct.” Recovery is available based on a showing of “recklessness or bad faith. . . . Bad

 26 ¹⁵ Though the above argument summarizes arguments and conclusions reached in the Report and Recommendation and Order dismissing Mr. Barton’s claims, LeadPoint and Reliance raised several other arguments in their Motion to Dismiss and to Strike that the Court did not reach and that they maintain also warranted dismissal.

1 faith is present when an attorney knowingly or recklessly raises a frivolous argument . . . or 2 argues a meritorious claim for the purpose of harassing an opponent”¹⁶ Section 1927
 3 sanctions may be imposed upon a pro se plaintiff.¹⁷ Additionally, a “party . . . who presents to 4 the court unnecessary motions or unwarranted opposition . . . or who otherwise so multiplies
 5 or obstructs the proceedings in a case may . . . be required by the court to satisfy personally
 6 such excess costs and may be subject to such other sanctions as the court may deem 7 appropriate.” LCR 11(c).

8 B. An Award of Fees and Costs is Appropriate

9 Defendants respectfully submit that an award of fees and costs is also appropriate 10 because Mr. Barton unreasonably and vexatiously multiplied the proceedings by filing, and 11 attempting to leverage, a meritless Motion to Remand, and by pursuing the First Amended 12 Complaint.

13 LeadPoint removed this case on May 19, 2021 and its local counsel emailed Mr.
 14 Barton a copy of the Notice of Removal. Within hours, Mr. Barton emailed a copy of his 15 Motion to Remand. Morales Decl., Ex. 1. The Motion opened with an argument regarding 16 lack of diversity jurisdiction (LeadPoint did not raise this as a basis for jurisdiction). Motion 17 to Remand, Dkt. No. 15 at 2: 2-6. The Motion advanced other meritless arguments 18 contradicted in his initial, proposed amended, and First Amended Complaints. Compare Id. at 19 2: 8-12 with Dkt. 1-1 at 1:17-18, 2:3-4, and 4:9-10, Dkt. 24-1 at 3:8-12, 4:18, 5:17-20, and 20 8:19-21, and Dkt. 31 at 3:8-12, 4:3-4, 5:13-16, and 8:14-16. After he emailed his Motion to 21 Remand, an attorney for a co-defendant asked Mr. Barton to clarify whether he was claiming 22 that someone else had possession of his phone at the time of the alleged calls, to which Mr.
 23 Barton responded: “I think you have to work with what is in the complaint :) .” Morales 24 Decl., Ex. 2. The following day, Mr. Barton tried to leverage his Motion (indicating he was 25 aware Article III standing existed) for more discovery. Id. at Ex. 3.

Counsel for LeadPoint and Reliance asked Mr. Barton to withdraw the Motion on June 1. Morales Decl., Ex. 4. He initially disagreed and on the morning of June 3 attempted to leverage the Motion to add another defendant. Id. at Ex. 5. LeadPoint and Reliance, who were preparing an Opposition to the Motion, advised they would not agree to add another defendant, reserved their rights, and again emphasized that the Motion should be withdrawn. Minutes later, Mr. Barton agreed to withdraw the Motion and emailed his First Amended Complaint. Id. One hour after Mr. Barton tried to leverage his Motion, the First Amended Complaint now affirmatively alleged that the case belonged in this Court. FAC, Dkt. 31-1 at 3:8-12, see also 4:3-5, 5:13-16, and 8:15-16.¹⁸ Approximately two weeks before LeadPoint removed the case and Mr. Barton emailed his Motion to Remand, Mr. Barton signed a Complaint and initiated a TCPA case in this Court, relying on the same allegations he eventually made in this case to support jurisdiction.¹⁹

Mr. Barton further unreasonably and vexatiously multiplied the proceedings by pursuing a First Amended Complaint that lacked factual and legal merit. As discussed above, Mr. Barton manufactured this case by requesting calls and texts after receiving an initial text addressed to someone else. After being presented with LeadPoint and Reliance's arguments in their initial Motion to Dismiss and Strike, Mr. Barton doubled down despite knowing that his claims failed because (among other things) he consented and the number was not residential.

Notably, Mr. Barton never denied submitting his phone number in the link he opened after receiving the first alleged text. The Report and Recommendation thus determined that ¹⁸ Before agreeing to withdraw the Motion to Remand on June 3, on May 27 Mr. Barton signed a proposed amended complaint that he submitted to the Court. That proposed complaint contained the same allegations supporting Article III standing that he ultimately included in his First Amended Complaint. See Proposed Amended Complaint, Dkt. 24-1 at 3:8-12, 4:5-7, 5:17-20, and 8:20-21.

¹⁹ As in this case, he alleged that “[j]urisdiction in this court is correct because of where Plaintiff resides, a nexus where the acts occurred, and Plaintiff is suing in part under federal statute the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. . . . giving rise to a lawsuit that may be brought in Federal Court pursuant to Mims v. Arrow Fin. Services, LLC.” Morales Decl., Ex. 7, Complaint at 2:16-19.

1 his TCPA claim, RCW 19.158.040(2),²⁰ 19.158.110(2),²¹ and 19.158.150 claims should be 2 dismissed due to consent. Report and Recommendation, Dkt. 47 at 7-12. And instead of 3 explaining why his telephone number was residential, Mr. Barton alleged that he used his 4 number for “judicial branch advocacy.” FAC, Dkt. 31-1 at 4:1. Nor did he deny allegations
 5 in other proceedings regarding a separate cell phone number being used as his personal
 6 phone.²²

7 As the Report and Recommendation concluded, Mr. Barton’s RCW 19.86.020 claim 8 against LeadPoint failed because, as Mr. Barton affirmatively alleged, the website linked in 9 the March 2 text message said LeadPoint. Report and Recommendation, Dkt. 47 at 10:15-19.
 10 See also Declaration of Esteban Morales in Support of Motion to Dismiss and Strike, Ex. B, 11 Dkt. 33-3. As to the RCW 80.36.390 claim, Mr. Barton was unable to allege a claim that 12 comported with the plain language of the statute; he did not allege a conversation taking place 13 and did not allege a do not call request during a call. Report and Recommendation, Dkt. 47 at 14 10:20-11:14.

15 In the First Amended Complaint, Mr. Barton also pursued a new set of claims under 16 the Telemarketing Sales Rule. FAC, Dkt. 31-1 at 10:3-16. Mr. Barton abandoned those 17 claims after conceding that he did not have a private right of action. Declaration of Esteban
 18 Morales in Support of Motion to Dismiss and Strike, Ex. H, Dkt. 33-9.²³

23²⁰ Mr. Barton only alleged that calls before 8 a.m. were made by LeadPoint after he consented and did not allege any such calls with respect to Reliance.

24²¹ The Report and Recommendation also determined this claim failed because Mr. Barton did not allege making a do-not-call request during a telephone contact. Report and Recommendation, Dkt. 47 at 12:1-5.

25²² As LeadPoint and Reliance argued in their Motion to Dismiss and Strike the First Amended Complaint, the number at issue could not form the basis of claims under RCW 19.158.040(2) and 80.36.390(3) for the same reason.

26²³ Mr. Barton tacitly acknowledged the lack of merit of his state law claims by abandoning those claims as well when he objected to the Report and Recommendation. Objection to Report and Recommendation, Dkt. 50 at 5:2-9.

13 proceedings. The Parties met and conferred by phone regarding this motion on January 21, 14 2022 and continued to discuss the motion thereafter but were unable to reach a resolution.
